

MUSEUMS

Museum of Fine Arts- Located on Beach Drive NE in St. Petersburg, this museum is one of Florida's many pride and joys. With collections of sculptures, paintings, and special limited time exhibits, buying tickets to the Museum of Fine Arts is a must! Visit their official site at MFASStPete.org for prices, or, if you are a Pinellas County library card holder, keep an eye out for our free museum ticket passes, good for two adults and three children.

Chihuly- This collection is here to stay! Located on Central Avenue in St. Petersburg, this amazing and beautiful collection of world-renowned glass artist Dale Chihuly is like no other. With entry into the museum, you also get an exclusive workshop experience just across the street at the Morean Glass Studio and Hot Shop. For tickets, visit the MoreanArtsCenter.org/Chihuly, look out for the Pinellas County Museum passes, good for two children and three adults.

Great Explorations- Located on 4th Street North in St. Petersburg, the Children's Museum is the place to bring your little ones. The exhibits are interactive and hands on, and it's a great way to teach your kids about museums. Entry is only for adults with children. To get tickets visit the official website at greatex.com, or look for the Pinellas County Library passes good for two adults and three children.

The Holocaust Museum- If you've been the one in DC, this smaller exhibit doesn't disappoint. Located on 5th Street South in St. Petersburg, learn about the struggles of those who were persecuted during the Holocaust, and participate in special events. For tickets visit the official site at flholocaustmuseum.org, or look for the Pinellas County Library passes, good for two adults and three children.

The James Museum- Located on Central Avenue in St. Petersburg, this new museum of Western and Wildlife art will light that spark of interest in the old west, which something we don't learn in schools too often. Join in learning the history of our country and participate in the special events hosted at this museum. For tickets visit their official website at TheJamesMuseum.org.

Clearwater Marine Aquarium- If you've seen the movie Dolphin Tail, you know the famous star who lives at this non-for-profit rescue and rehabilitation center. Located on Clearwater Beach, this is the place to visit Winter, the dolphin who uses a prosthetic tail. Visit to learn about her incredible journey with her new friend, Hope, the star of the second Dolphin Tail movie. For tickets, visit the official website at SeeWinter.com.