

RESTAURANTS

Red Mesa Cantina- If you're making a day of visiting St. Petersburg museums, stop by this little walk up and try any of their amazing tacos with a hibiscus iced tea, and finish off with an authentic flan.

Jonny's Italian Restaurant- A favorite spot for those in the Clearwater area, this Italian restaurant is the real deal. The menu is full of wonderful dishes from the traditional spaghetti and meatballs to pizzas and calzones that could compare to a good New York style.

Palm Pavilion Beachside Grille- Located on Clearwater beach, this fun bar and restaurant boasts fresh catches, and are well known for their grouper cheeks and sandwiches. Try a table on their patio and have a beautiful view of the beach while enjoying a wonderful meal.

Flame Stone- This restaurant is a huge success. With one location just off of Tampa Road and another on State Road 54, this booming high end restaurant is famous for its awesome chicken and waffles piled high with candied bacon and a healthy dose of syrup. It also has a menu with a broad variety of dinner choices to appease those who love seafood, chicken, and vegetarian style foods. A great place for a more formal meal.

The Wooden Ladle- The younger generations love their ramen noodles! This awesome stop located off of Tampa Road is the place to go for noodles, chicken, and poke bowls. The style is unique and the atmosphere is geared towards a relaxing vibe for the stressed out college student or the soccer mom who treats the team to their after practice lunch.

Rumba- This restaurant gives off a Caribbean vibe that would put anyone at ease. With a great menu for the seafood lover in you, and friendly staff who is always on top of their game, this place will have you wanting to sing the Pirates of the Caribbean theme throughout your meal. Check out the Clearwater or the Oldsmar locations!
